Illuminated Living-Room K830

The best way to control your connected TV, even in the dark.

- Backlit keys
- Built-in touchpad
- Advanced 2.4 GHz wireless
- Rechargeable
- Living-room design

The Logitech Illuminated Living-Room Keyboard K830 was designed to enhance your TV entertainment experience. It's the best way to wirelessly control your connected TV, and a must for the modern-day living room. Bright, backlit keys help you see and type easily, even in the dark, and the built-in touchpad gives you precise cursor control from up to 10 metres away.* The construction is lightweight yet sturdy, inviting to hold and comfortable on the lap. Extra features like rechargeability, media-focused hot keys and a second left-click button makes it all the more pleasurable to use in the living room.
